

BACC Beat-News and Information from the BACC Ohio

Congratulations to BACC Member and Officer, David Sinclair, on the recreation of Her Majesty's Bark Endeavour, circa 1770, the ship with which Cook circumnavigated the world.

This "little" endeavor took David 18 months to complete, about 2,000 hours!

Transatlantic Opportunities

The British-American Business Council Transatlantic Conference, May 12-14 in London, is open for registration. The theme of this year's conference is "Strategies for Success-2010-2020: How will the leading business sectors contend with the challenges of the next decade?"

This annual conference brings together members of the BACC's 25 chapters throughout North America and the UK for a 3-day program of high-level business discussions and networking. For complete details of the agenda and registration, visit <http://www.conference.babinc.org/>. Note that Early Bird Registration Rate only applies to the full 3-day Conference and is valid until 31 March 2010.

Transatlantic Opportunities

The deadline to register for the NEOTEC/ITAC Northeast Ohio-UK Trade Mission, June 6-13, has been extended to 19 March. The trade mission is designed to help area manufacturers develop business relationships and expand into the European market. Don't miss this opportunity to attend the MACH show in Birmingham and take advantage of pre-arranged site and plant visits. For details, call 866-253-4358 or visit the NEOTEC website at <http://www.neotec.org/>.

The 2010 edition of Invest in the UK is now available. Invest in the UK is ideal for companies looking to locate in the UK. It is full of facts and figures relevant to prospective inward investors and features reports on key UK business sectors. Pick up your copy at one of the BACC/Link Club monthly luncheons or call 216-621-0222 to have a copied mailed to you.
